Course Aims

- The GDPR outlines new policies for collecting, processing, and securing personal data. Health and social care organisations are in a vital position as they handle an entire spectrum of patient data. Thus, all health and social care staff must have a better understanding of the key legislation and regulations to meet GDPR compliance requirements.
- This online GDPR in Health and Social Care training course aims to highlight the critical aspects of the General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) and how they affect the health and social care sector.

Learning Outcomes

- Define ways for practices to meet data security requirements,
- Introduce a range of policy and procedure requirements,
- Ensure effective team training, reporting and monitoring compliance,
- Know how to maintain data security protection measures,
- Know how to meet regulatory requirements,
- Know how to maintain data security protection measures, and
- Understand the importance of staff updates and training measures.

Based on current legislation and guidance, we recommend that this course must be refreshed depending on the advise and guidance from the learner's organisation.

Learners are strongly advised to seek guidance from their organisation
